What an MBA Should Change About How You Decide

26 min · Programme Director

Framing, evidence standards and the discipline of stating assumptions.

Strategy Under Regulation

52 min · Faculty of Business

Why classical positioning breaks down when prices are administered.

Standard of Care Explained for Managers

44 min · Faculty of Medical Law

How courts construct the standard and what documentation actually protects.

Running a Data Breach Drill

39 min · Faculty of Medical Law

A full tabletop exercise across both notification regimes.

Building the Board Pack

31 min · Faculty of Business

One page, five numbers and the narrative that connects them.

From Problem to Research Question

35 min · Research Methods Unit

Converting an operational irritation into a defensible thesis topic.

Lectures are streamed in the study portal with English subtitles and downloadable transcripts. Tutorial consultations are recorded and published within twenty-four hours.

4. Assessment structure

Component	Weight	Description
Applied deliverables	50–70%	Programmes, dossiers, opinions and board packs usable in practice.
Simulations	10–40%	Recorded negotiations, breach drills and client presentations.
Written examinations	0–40%	Used where standardised knowledge testing is appropriate.
Thesis and defence	30 credits	Independent applied research with an oral defence.

5. Master's thesis (30 credits)

A 15,000–20,000 word applied research study. Most students research a live problem inside their own organisation; a confidentiality annex is available where the data are sensitive.
